

COURSE SYLLABUS

PSY 330 PSYCHOLOGY OF GENDER

(3+0+0) 3 Credits / (6 ECTS Credits)

Instructor : Canay Doğulu, PhD
Office : B149
Office Phone : 0312 585 0 385
E-mail : canay.dogulu@tedu.edu.tr (e-mail is by far the best way to contact me)

Class hours : Tuesdays 14.00 – 15.50; Thursdays 16.00 – 17.50
via Zoom (links available in Moodle)

Course Assistant : Sevi Gizem Zeybek E-mail : sgizem.zeybek@tedu.edu.tr
Office : B243
Office Phone : 0312 585 00 55

Office hours : on Zoom (contact me via e-mail for individual appointment)

Course Description and Objectives

This course aims to provide an overview of psychology of gender in relation to major theories, methods, and central debates. The content of the course is designed to familiarize students with the concept of gender and gender-related topics. It introduces different theoretical approaches and current discussions on gender-related issues from a critical and social psychology perspective. The goal is to enable students explore the influence of gender on different aspects of life as well as the implications of gender for various social issues. The course further aims to increase awareness of students on the antecedents and negative consequences of sexism.

Introduction to main concepts and issues. Methods and history of gender research. Gender-role attitudes. Sex-related comparisons. Theories of gender. Paid worker role and health. Gender-based violence. Manhood and masculine ideology. Feminism.

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. describe the main concepts and issues in psychology of gender.
2. identify how gender plays a key role in various aspects of the human experience.
3. apply gender theories and perspective of gender equality in everyday life.
4. analyze gender-related issues using psychological theory and research.
5. develop a social constructionist view of gender.
6. evaluate the implications of gender dynamics for complex social issues.

Course Textbook and Materials

Primary Textbook

Helgeson, V. S. (2020). Psychology of gender (6th ed.). Routledge.

Suggested References

Bosson, J. K., Vandello, J. A., & Buckner, C. E. (2018). The psychology of sex and gender. SAGE Publications.

American Psychological Association. (2020). Publication manual of the American Psychological Association (7th ed.). American Psychological Association.

Planned Learning Activities and Teaching Methods

Brainstorming, Collaborating, Concept Mapping, Demonstrating, Discussions / Debates, Hands-on Activities, Inquiry, Oral Presentations / Reports, Peer Teaching, Problem Solving, Questioning, Reading, Telling / Explaining, Think-Pair-Share, Video Presentations, Web Searching

Student Workload

Activities	Workload
Lectures	42 hours
Course Readings	30 hours
Exams	30 hours
Group Presentation	15 hours
Report on a Topic	35 hours
Research Review	10 hours
TOTAL	162 hours

Course Requirements and Grading

Your overall grade will be based on catalog system and contribution of each requirement you need to fulfill is as follows:

Requirement	Percentage
Midterm Exam	30%
Final Exam	35%
Project Report	20%
Project Presentation	10%
Peer Evaluation for Project Presentation	5%
Bonus (Research Participation)	1%
TOTAL	101%

Exams (65%)

Exams (1 midterm and 1 final) will consist of multiple-choice questions as well as several other types of questions such as matching, fill-in-the-blanks, and open-ended questions. They are designed to gauge your understanding of the covered material. You will not be allowed to use any books or notes or the like, i.e. the exam is "closed books". The final exam will be cumulative (that is, the final exam will cover all the assigned readings and lecture materials presented throughout the semester). Details regarding the implementation of the exams will be announced later as they are bound to decisions based on the official regulations by Council of Higher Education (YÖK) and TEDU administration.

Project (35%)

Students will complete a group project related to the psychology of gender. Groups will consist of 5 members (depending on class size it can change) and the deadline for forming groups is March 25th, 2021 (Moodle post). For the project, students might choose different activities such as preparing a video, brochure, or photography to increase awareness about gender-related concepts and sexism OR writing fairy tales or stories questioning and criticizing gender roles. You will decide on your project topic and scope though you can always ask for my suggestions. You should inform me about your project by May 6th, 2021.

- Project Presentation (10%)

Groups will present their project to the class at the end of the semester. For your presentation, you will have a strict 10 minutes. Detailed instructions will be announced later in Moodle.

- Project Report (20%)

Groups will prepare a written report for their project explaining the (i) aim(s), method(s), and content of your project and (ii) psychological concepts and/or theories that are relevant to your project (you will rely on the relevant literature for this part). The report will also include your reflection as a group on how working on the project contributed to your understanding of "gender" and its implications on real life. The report should be written in APA style (12-font Times New Roman, double spacing) with a length of 5-7 pages (excluding Title page and References). Detailed instructions will be announced later in Moodle.

- Peer Evaluation (5%)

The degree of compliance to division of labor within groups for the project work will be subjected to peer evaluation by group members. Using a Likert-type of scale, group members will be asked to indicate the degree of individual contributions to the teamwork regarding the realization of the presentation. All students need to attend to presentation of all groups.

Groups will submit their project presentations and reports to the class Moodle on the announced date and time.

And you should keep in mind that the time to worry about your grade is before you have received a grade.

Grading Scale
Letter Grade	Status	Score Interval	Coefficient
AA	Excellent	90-100	4,00
BA	Good-Excellent	85-89	3,50
BB	Good	80-84	3,00
CB	Satisfactory-Good	75-79	2,50
CC	Satisfactory	70-74	2,00
DC	Weak-Satisfactory	60-69	1,50
DD	Weak	50-59	1,00
F	Failure	0-49	0,00
FX*	Failure	-	0,00

* Letter grade "FX" is assigned to students who gave failed to attend classes or failed to participate in the midterm exam, final exam, term project or in similar major course assessment activities.

Course Assessment & Learning Outcomes Matrix

Assessment Methods	Course Learning Outcomes
Exams	#1, #2, #3, #4, #5, #6
Project Presentation	#1, #2, #3, #4, #5, #6
Project Report	#1, #2, #3, #4, #5, #6
Project Peer Evaluation	#1, #2, #3, #4, #5, #6

Course Policies

- Class Sessions: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic conditions, the course will be conducted online synchronously via Zoom.
- Attendance: You are expected to attend classes on a regular basis, be on-time, and participate fully in class discussions and activities. As you are responsible for all information covered in class and expected to participate in class discussions, you should avoid making any vacation plans on class days during the semester and plan doctor's appointments, errands and the like after class time. University regulations will be taken as basis for attendance requirements. Attendance is required and will be regularly recorded through Zoom as it provides a list of participants (i.e., students) and their online periods during the class sessions. If your total non-attendance exceeds 30% (i.e., if you fail to attend 70% of the classes), you will not be able to take the final assessment and will be assigned the letter grade "FX" (unless they have a TEDU approved medical or academic report). If you have difficulty in online class participation, please contact the course coordinator via e-mail.

- Class Readings: You are expected to come to classes having read the assigned readings for each week (SQ3R¹ method can be useful if you want to use your time wisely) so that you can follow what is covered in class, participate in discussions and activities effectively, and get more out of the class. All readings may not necessarily be discussed directly in class, but it is assumed that you will have read them as they will serve as basis for the course requirements. You are also responsible for all materials (including extra readings or video demonstrations etc.) posted on class Moodle in your exams and assignments.
- Lecture Notes: Power Point slides will be made available on Moodle after each week's class. Lecture notes will only help you to follow the lecture content as it will give an overview of the topics covered. However, your main study tool will be your textbook. You are genuinely advised to take notes during classes to improve your understanding of the topics covered.
- Class Participation: Class participation is an essential part of this course. Classes may involve interactive lectures, individual and/or small group discussions and activities, concept mapping, case studies, audio-visuals, video presentations, class presentations, hands-on activities, and/or web searching.
- Missed Work and Late Assignment Submission Policy: If you miss a class and/or or any course requirement, you are responsible for all the work you have missed.
 - Each assignment is to be turned in on time.
 - There will be no change in deadlines of the assignments (i.e., no extensions) in case of absenteeism (unless you have a valid official documentation approved by TED University).
 - Arrangements for accepting late assignments will be made ONLY in unusual circumstances (e.g., major illness), and ONLY if you are able to provide an official documentation (approved by TED University) to support your excuse. Please contact the course coordinator beforehand about your excuse so that we can arrange an alternative due date. In all other cases, after the due date NO SUBMISSIONS will be accepted.
 - If classes are cancelled due to certain circumstances, assignments are due the same week that the campus is re-opened.
- Academic Integrity: Academic integrity is expected. Acts of academic dishonesty, such as cheating and plagiarism (including self-plagiarism), will be penalized according to university regulations.
 - You must neither receive help from nor give help to others during exams.
 - Plagiarism is a form of dishonesty that occurs when a person passes off someone else's work as his or her own. This can range from failing to cite an author for ideas incorporated into a student's paper to cutting and pasting paragraphs from different websites to handing in a paper downloaded from the internet. All are plagiarism. If you use your previous own work in another context without any citation or recycle your work for another course, this is self-plagiarism and will be subjected to same consequences as other forms of plagiarism.
 - All parties to plagiarism are considered equally guilty. If you share your coursework with another student and s/he plagiarizes it, you are considered as guilty as the one who has plagiarized your work, since you enabled the plagiarism to take place. Under no circumstances should a student make his/her coursework available to another student unless the instructor gives explicit permission for this to happen. Copying someone's work is an extreme and straightforward act of plagiarism. More commonly, however, students plagiarize without realizing they are doing so. This generally happens when a student fails to acknowledge the source of an idea or phrasing. Avoid plagiarism by citing sources properly! Also when writing, it is important that you use your own wording – if you cite from a source, you have to paraphrase what you cite unless you use direct quotation.

¹ n. one of a variety of study methods developed on the basis of research in cognitive psychology. The formula represents a method for enhanced learning of reading material. It consists of five steps: survey, question, read, recite, and review. (see <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rFIK5gutHKM>)

- TED University is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behavior of YOK (<http://www.mevzuat.gov.tr/Metin.Aspx?MevzuatKod=7.5.16532&MevzuatIliski=0&sourceXmlSearch=>) and avoid any behavior that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University. All forms of dishonesty are unacceptable at the University. Any offense will be reported to Provost Office who will determine the disciplinary action to be taken.
- TED University rules and procedures for academic integrity can be accessed from <https://www.tedu.edu.tr/en/main/regulations-and-guidelines-for-education>.
- Individual Integrity: As the emotional safety of all students is crucial, all instructors are committed to provide an environment of equality and respect for all members of the course and university community. In addition to unprofessional, unethical (e.g., plagiarism) or disruptive behaviors, discrimination based on ethnicity, religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation, and cultural background is not acceptable. Students who require accommodations due to a disability affecting mobility, vision, hearing, learning or mental and physical health are advised to discuss their needs with the course coordinator (Asst. Prof. Canay Doğulu).
 - Specialized Support and Students with Disabilities

Students who may require specialized support due to a disability affecting mobility, vision, hearing, learning, mental or physical health should consult with Specialized Support and Disability Coordinator, Asst. Prof. Emrah Keser E-mail: emrah.keser@tedu.edu.tr
 - Student Counseling Centre

The Student Counseling Centre is a service mandated with providing crisis intervention and supportive listening services to the campus community. A major part of fulfilling that mandate is raising awareness of our service so that students know they are never alone in dealing with problems. For further information and/or questions, you can contact Sila Deniz Beyarslan, sdeniz.beyarslan@tedu.edu.tr, Office 165, or visit SCC website at <http://csc.tedu.edu.tr/>
 - TEDU COPeS

TED University Coronavirus Psychosocial Support Team was established in order to facilitate coping with the psychological, social, familial, academic, and professional difficulties that may arise due to adverse conditions associated with COVID-19 pandemic for TEDU students and employees. TEDU COPeS aims to provide psychosocial support for TED University students and employees during the coronavirus outbreak. To this end, the team aims to provide support at the early stages of a possible crisis, activate and strengthen your coping strategies, and provide information on support resources. For further information and/or questions, visit their website at <https://copes.tedu.edu.tr/>.
- Environment of Mutual Respect: An environment of respect fosters learning. All instructors will always be respectful of your time, your learning, and your questions. Please behave professionally, respectfully, and courteously to your classmates and instructors.

Online Resources

- Social Psychology Network <https://www.socialpsychology.org/>
- American Psychological Association APA Style <http://www.apastyle.org/>
- The University of Manchester Academic Phrasebank <http://www.phrasebank.manchester.ac.uk/>

“Life can only be understood backwards, but it must be lived forwards.”

Søren Kierkegaard

“Wisdom begins in wonder.”

Socrates

PSY 330
Psychology of Gender

Tentative Class Schedule

Week	Date	Topic	Readings
1	February 23 February 25	Course Introduction and Syllabus Review
2	March 2 March 4	Introduction to Main Concepts and Issues	Chapter 1
3	March 9 March 11	Methods and History of Gender Research	Chapter 2
4	March 16 March 18	Gender Role Attitudes	Chapter 3
5	March 23 March 25	Gender Role Attitudes (cont'd)	Chapter 3
6	March 30 April 1	Sex-Related Comparisons: Observation	Chapter 4
7	April 6 April 8	General Overview & Midterm Exam
8	April 13 April 15	Theories of Gender	Chapter 5
9	April 20 April 22	Theories of Gender (cont'd)	Chapter 5
10	April 27 April 29	Paid Worker Role and Health	Chapter 12
11	May 4 May 6	Gender-Based Violence	WHO (2009) UN Women (2019)
12	May 11 May 13	NO CLASS (May 12-15 Ramadan Feast Holiday)
13	May 18 May 20	Manhood and Masculine Ideology Feminism	Vandello & Bosson (2013) Rogers & Rogers (2001)
14	May 25 May 27	 Group presentations
15	June 1 June 3	General Overview and Evaluation
June 7 – 18, 2021		Finals

Important Note: The content of the syllabus is subject to change. Any changes to content and/or schedule will be announced in class Moodle.